

Hausa Instructor

Job Description: The Post Language Program at the U.S. Embassy is seeking a fluent Hausa speaker to teach U.S. Mission personnel basic phrases and terms in Hausa. This position will teach two different courses. The first course will be an introduction to Hausa. The second course will provide more in-depth instruction for those Embassy employees with a fundamental knowledge of Hausa.

Job Requirements: The Hausa instructor must be able to meet at the Embassy twice a week for 2.5 hours each day of instruction. This is a total of five hours per week. The classes will be held on Monday and Thursday afternoons from 5pm until 7pm. The instructor is expected to come prepared with a course outline for each day's class.

Compensation: The course will run for 26 weeks. The pay is 17,500 Naira per week. There will not be any compensation for travel to or from the Embassy or for lodging. This is not an official Embassy position, so there will also not be any retirement or health benefits.

All inquiries should be directed to the Post Language Officer, Scott Miller. Please submit resumes or CVs to millersm2@state.gov for consideration no later than August 1, 2011. Candidates on the short list will be invited for an interview. The selected candidate will be notified directly by email or phone.
